PEN PICTURES

1—Jeffrey WEALANDS. A bright young prospect who has justified early impressions since signing from Darlington, February, 1972.

2—Frank BANKS. Joined Hull on free transfer from Southend United September, 1966, and developed into one of the best Second Division defenders. Ever-present last season.

3—Jimmy McGILL. Former forward who made League debut with Arsenal, 1967. Moved to Huddersfield, then to Hull City, October, 1971. Resourceful, courageous and skilful.

4—John KAYE. Native of Goole, first played for Hull as a junior. Returned from West Bromwich Albion November, 1971, now a strong and experienced defender. Popular captain.

5—Stephen DEERE. Cost a handsome fee when signed from Scunthorpe United in May, against keen competition. Hull reckon he has been worth the money; 6/1, 12st. Born Burnham.

6—Chris GALVIN. A close-season signing from Leeds United. Promises well as a strong, forceful midfield raider.

7—Dennis BURNETT. Bermondsey-born former West Ham and Millwall. Signed recently he made his debut at Carlisle on November 10th, and scored against Villa in his next game.

8—Malcolm LORD. Born near Hull. Signed as a professional 1965. Rose through junior and reserve sides to become a regular and highly versatile first-teamer.

9—Stuart PEARSON. Another local product who started in 1965 as an amateur. Graduated to first choice centre forward and has been leading scorer in the last three seasons.

10—Ken WAGSTAFF. Noted as an aggresive penetrative forward, now with about 250 League goals to his credit in 300 games, is in his tenth season at Hull, and still a menace. Originally with Mansfield.

11—Roy GREENWOOD. A Leeds youth who turned professional two years ago when an apprentice with Hull. His fast raising, ball control and goal-getting potential have attracted other clubs' attention.

FOCUS (See Front Cover)

A SHREWD Scot who was born at Denny, the home town of North Ender Jimmy Dougal of pre-war fame, experienced Jim McNab has given the Deepdale club devoted service of unvarying merit since his transfer from Sunderland, his first English club, in March, 1967. Starting as yet another link in a long chain of Scottish wing halves at Deepdale, he later proved versatile enough to play as well elsewhere in defence.

HULL CITY

HULL CITY'S welcomed visit is their seventeenth in the League since 1912 when the teams met for the first time through North End having been relegated. All the matches have been in Division Two. In terms of "horses for courses" the results at Deepdale have seldom suited "The Tigers" as they have nearly always lost.

An exception was their visit on February 21st, 1970, during the bad spell which put North End in Division Three. Hull fought back with goals by Charlton and Wagstaff(2) to draw 3-3. When previously here in October, 1968, as the fifth team to lead the Second Division in 10 weeks, they lost 0-1 and were beaten again by the only goal last season. A year earlier the result was Preston 3, Hull City 1.

Hull's only success at Deepdale was in their 1929-30 relegation season, when they won by 2-1 to complete a 'double'—. North End set this straight four seasons later by thrashing them 5-0 at Preston and scoring the only goal at Hull in a vital April match which helped to ensure promotion for the Deepdale side.

In the only F.A. Cup meeting North End drew a quarter final tie at Hull on March 5th, 1921, and won the replay 1-0 to delight a Thursday afternoon crowd of 30,000. Summary of League match results:

AMATEURS in 1902-03, Hull turned professional after two years and the following season got into The League. They have never been in the First Division. When our former manager, Cliff Britton, went to Hull his aim was promotion from Division Three. Four seasons later they were undisputed Champions with a club record of 69 points. This is how they have fared since :

MANAGER

TERRY NEILL, who eventually succeeded a football star of a previous generation as manager of Hull City, was many a player's ideal of a track-suit boss when he was put in charge of the team in June, 1970. Last season he missed only seven of 42 League games.

A Northern Ireland player from 1962, he also brought his total of international honours to well over 50 by appearing against England, Scotland and Wales for the eighth time in a single season.

Born at Bangor, Northern Ireland, he started in League football with Arsenal and was captain when only 20. After 241 First Division appearances he continued his career as a centre half with Hull City and now is credited with approximately 350.

CHARLT

NEW YEAR is the time for making resolutions; resolutions which everyone tries to keep throughout the year. We have just one resolution here which is to do our best in the New Year and we hope it will bring us lots of good things.

I remember going to watch Sunderland many years ago when they played Newcastle in the days of Len Shackleton, Willie Watson and Trevor Ford.

Up in the north-east, as probably opposed to down here, New Year is celebrated much more than Christmas and the holiday atmosphere was still prevalent after a boisterous New Year's Eve, when most wives were pleased to see their husbands go out to a football match.

I suppose that, as this was the first match I saw in such an atmosphere it remains in my memory partly owing to the holiday spirit, but really more so because it was played in about 8 inches of snow, conditions which, as I mentioned in the previous programme, would not have been tolerated to-day.

However, because it was a holiday it was considered much more important to keep the supporters happy than actually cater for the clubs themselves. In that "derby" against Newcastle, Len Shackleton, a great character of the game, decided to pull his stockings up, nylon style, because it was so cold, it made me laugh, but it did not detract from the high regard I had for him whether he was a clown or not.

Now clubs have got underground heating, a far cry from the straw that used to be packed on the park. There are lots of things coming into the game this New Year and I am hoping that 1974 will make football better for players, supporters and everyone concerned with it.

Obviously at this time North Enders are all looking forward to our Third Round F.A. Cup game at Fulham next Saturday, a match which we hope will be the first of many Cup ties.

Once again, on behalf of everyone at Deepdale, I hope that you, our supporters, will be given a lot to cheer about in 1974. Have a Very Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Preston North End Directors, Players and Staff enjoy the Clubs first Christmas Party

25 YEARS AGO

by WALTER PILKINGTON

1948-49 ANOTHER crop of team changes was the expected sequel to the sorry showing at Portsmouth but hardly to the wholesale extent of eight! The three who retained their places of the previous week were goalkeeper Newlands (Gooch's deputy since August without a break), centre half "Paddy" Waters and ever-present outside left Bob Langton.

Joe Walton moved from right to left back, ousting recent newcomer Kane, who was not recalled to the first team until the following season. Similarly Jack Knight switched from inside right to his customary position, inside left. Some stiffening was anticipated from the return of Bill Brown to full back, industrious Ken Horton to right half in place of the too mercurial Davie, and Morrison to centre forward. Bob Beattie, whose craft had been missed, was back at inside right with Harry Jackson excluded.

"Paddy" Waters

Tommy Bogan returned to his role of deputising for Finney. Willie Dougall, out with an ankle injury, was replaced by energetic little Willie Robertson. He so rarely let his side down, yet had not previously been called upon this season. It was asking a lot to expect blend after such a lavish shuffle, but at least fighting spirit was not lacking in the Christmas Day match at Charlton. The encouraging outcome was a deserved point from a rugged game which failed to produce a goal. The performance, considering Charlton's competence, gained in merit through Horton having to do a makeshift job in goal for 20 minutes. He did it well.

Alas for the hopes of a Boxing Day Deepdale crowd of 35,000, the same North End side lost the return match 2-3 after getting an early lead and holding it until the last half hour. Then errors of the sort which had been so costly in several games swung the result in Charlton's favour and put Preston back at the foot of the table.

Their only satisfaction in this sixth home defeat was that Morrison, Willie McIntosh's forceful successor at centre forward, scored two goals for the third time in five matches.

Flashback

THE OLD year last season ended for North End on a more encouraging note after five games in December for three points (all draws) and only four goals scored in reply to 12.

This crack-up in defence was the more disturbing because Alan Kelly and Co. had conceded only two in the preceding five matches which yielded seven points and brightened hopes of promotion.

Subsequent lapses reduced the attendance from an average well over 10,000 to 7,500 for Bristol City's visit on the Saturday before Christmas. The festive season over, 9,638 turned up for the Luton match on December 30th and a 2-0 home win gave them a hearty uplift. It increased the points to 27 (25 games).

OUR DIVISION

THE matches up to the Saturday preceding Christmas completed the first half of the season for 11 of the 22 clubs and showed plenty of scope for fluctuation involving the 16 between the third and twentieth positions, with the highest of these separated from the lowest by only nine points.

The order of the clubs down to midway in the chart creates interesting speculation. For instance many years have elapsed since the top four were in Division One. The last of Middlesbrough's 37 seasons was 1953-54, Luton's five ended 1960, Notts County was last in 1926.

The next four (see page 6 for table) are striving to regain places recently lost, Bristol City were last a First Division club in 1911, Carlisle and Hull have never been in.

SECOND Division leaders, Middlesbrough, had the added satisfaction in their promotion drive of completing the first half of the programme with more goals than all but their Luton, Orient and Notts County rivals, fewer goals (12) conceded than all the other 21 teams, and 33 points.

If they continue gathering them at the same rate from Christmas until they visit Deepdale for their last match Borough will finish with 66. One has to go back over 40 years to find a team promoted with as many. The honour was gained by Everton.

Relegated in 1930 with 35 points — Liverpool, half way up the table, had only 41 — Everton stormed their way back the following season with 28 wins and five draws, and scored 121 goals to 66.

The redoubtable forward "Dixie" Dean, who had established the League's individual scoring record with 60 goals in 39 matches in 1927-28, made his club's only season in Division Two from 1888 to 1951 the more memorable by helping himself to 39. A year later Everton were First Division champions.

SINCE the war the highest of 13 Second Division points totals exceeding 60 has been 63 — by Leeds United in 1963-64 and Derby County five years later. Last season Burnley went up with 62, Q.P.R. with 61.

Unbeaten away up to the Christmas period, with five matches won, five drawn, Middlesbrough's only defeat in their first 11 home games was when Fulham won 2-0 on September 1st. In 16 of their first 21 League games Borough conceded only two goals.
